EXCESS OF EXPENDITURES OVER RECEIPTS, F $500,000. E

During this year the Public Works were stopped -five or six thousand laborers dismissed from em ployment-the market for the Farmer, in consequence, injured, and the prices of his crops reduced-a direct tax of Six Hundred Thousand Dollars laid upon the People, and a call made for One Million and a Quarter of the U. S. Deposite Fund.

Such is the startling change in the condition of New-York, brought about by Regency misrule and mismanagement.

YECATAN.-The schooner Ann Maria, Captain Peters, arrived yesterday in eight days from Sisal. We have conversed with a passenger, from whom we learn that the Mexicans had not yet made their appearance off their coast. It was believed that the Mexican fleet had gone to Vera Cruz, but they were expected to return and visit Campeachy, and the troops at that port were busily employed in putting the fortifications in a complete state of repair. The regular force there amounted to about 6,000 men, and the militia that could be called in, on an emergency, are five times that number. The people were full of enthusiasm, and determined to repel any invasion the Mexicans might attempt.
